From Tuesday August 4. to Saturday August 8. 1713.

Kensington, August 4.

THE following Addreſs from the County of Suffolk, was ſent up by the Hon. Sir Thomas Hanmer and Sir Robert Davers, Knights of the Shire, and was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Two Grand Juries, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Suffolk, at the Aſſizes held at Bury.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

THough we have often had the Honour to approach Your Sacred Perſon with Addreſſes of Congratulation for Succeſs in War, yet we are perſwaded we never appeared before the Throne more to Your Majeſty's Satisfaction, becauſe never ſo much to our own Happineſs.

We have already taſted ſome of the valuable Fruits of Peace, and we look upon them as the Earneſt of more, which a longer Continuance of it will yield to us, and therefore upon this occaſion we are deſirous to bear our Part in the publick Acknowledgments to Your Majeſty for ſo great a Bleſſing reſtored to Your People.

By this ſeaſonable interpoſition of Your Majeſty's Care, You have compleated the Work of our Deliverance: For as the many ſignal Succeſſes of Your Arms had effectually freed us from the Fear of our Enemies; ſo by crowning thoſe Glories by an honourable Peace, You have reſcued us from the only Danger which remained, the Deſigns of thoſe who have endeavoured to make even Your Victories the means of adding to the Burthen of Your Subjects, and of effecting the Subverſion of their Liberties. Henceforward we have a long proſpect of Security and Tranquility to rejoice in, and may with united Endeavours, apply our ſelves to cultivate the Arts of Peace, which by Your Royal Admonition we are incited to purſue: And whatever Advantages we from thence receive, we ſhall be obliged, in Juſtice, to aſcribe to Your Wiſdom and Goodneſs, and in Duty to make ſuch uſe of them as may be moſt acceptable to Your Majeſty, and moſt inſtrumental towards thoſe glorious Ends You purſue, of ſupporting and eſtabliſhing our excellent Conſtitution both in Church and State.

The following Addreſs from the County of Berks, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir John Stonehouſe, Bart. and Robert Parker, Eſquire, Knights of the Shire for the ſaid County; being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Northumberland, Lord Lieutenant and Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders of the County of Berks, aſſembled at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden at Abingdon.

MADAM,

AS we have offer'd our devouteſt Thanks to Almighty GOD; ſo we beg leave to return the humbleſt Acknowledgments of our grateful Hearts to Your Majeſty, for having put an End to a War, juſt and neceſſary in its Original, unequal and tedious in its Continuance. We are ſenſible, Madam, with how much Violence this Bleſſed and truly Coriſtian Work has been oppos'd abroad, and what unnatural Leagues have been form'd at home, by thoſe who diſtinguiſh between the Intereſt of their Country, and the Intereſt of Party: Theſe Conſiderations affected us with the deepeſt Concern, during the courſe of the Negotiations; but the Reflection which we make on theſe Difficulties now, ſerve to inhance our Joy as they ſerve to increaſe the Glory of Your Majeſty, whoſe unerring Wiſdom and inflexible Reſolution have triumph'd over all, and have made Your Allies and Your own Subjects both happy, in ſpight of themſelves.

It ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour, in our ſeveral Stations, to cultivate the Arts of Peace, to improve thoſe Advantages and make a right Uſe of thoſe Bleſſings which Your Majeſty has procured for us. May that GOD who raiſed Your Majeſty up to be the Inſtrument of ſo much much Good to these Kingdoms, long preserve our Happiness by preserving You, and when for our Sins You shall be taken from us, may the Protestant Successors think it their Glory, as it will be our Felicity, to follow Your bright Example.

The following Address from the County of Hertford, was presented to Her Majesty by Ralph Freeman and Thomas Halsey, Esqrs; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Salisbury, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy Lieutenants, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Justices of the Peace, Clergy and Freeholders, assembled at the Assizes held at Hertford, for the County of Hertford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WHEN we consider the many Blessings Heaven has been pleased to bestow upon Your Majesty abroad, and with what a peculiar Influence the Almighty has presided over Your Councils at home, we should be wanting in our Duty, if we did not with the truest Sense of Gratitude acknowledge our selves the most happy People, as freed from the dreadful Miseries of War, and blest with those Treaties of Peace and Commerce Your Majesty's great Wisdom has so lately concluded.

We are sensible of the artful Designs of some, who have craftily endeavour'd to destroy those well-contriv'd Schemes Your Majesty has formed for the future Quiet and Prosperity of Your People; but these we shall ever Guard against, as Men insatiable in their Ambitions, and factious for their own Ends, all the Measures Your Majesty having hitherto taken (concerted by Your wise and faithful Ministers) being Just and Satisfactory; and tho' such designing Men may have their Aim, in driving beyond the publick or natural Sense of Things, yet we doubt not Your Majesty's consummate Wisdom will ever dinstinguish between those that Contradict, and the hearty Promoters of this Peace in all its Parts, so advantageous to us.

We see, with real Joy, the Protestant Succession in the Illustrious House of Hanover effectually secured, that Succession being acknowledged in the strongest Terms, and the States-General are now become Guarantees for it, without that inestimable Bribe of our Trade, so unjustly granted to them by those who were intrusted in the Conduct of the first Barrier Treaty.

We assure Your Majesty, according to Your Royal Recommendation from the Throne, we shall steddily endeavour to remove those groundless Jealousies that are so industriously fomented among us, by the Malice of the Factious and Ill-minded, and shall watch all Opportunities to obviate the wicked Designs of those, who do their utmost to indanger, if not destroy, the Advantages Your most Sacred Majesty has so happily obtain'd for us.

As Your Majesty has been pleased to say, a steddy Adherence to the Constitution in Church and State, is the only means to establish our Happiness at home, and that Persons of these Principles are only to be rely'd on, and have the best Title to Your Favour; so we Your most loyal Subjects of this County, as we have ever endeavour'd to be true to those Principles, shall continue to shew our selves steddily the same, by doing our utmost always to choose such Members to represent us in Parliament, as shall be true Assertors of Monarchy, Dutiful to their Queen, and faithful and affectionate Sons of the Church of England.

May Prosperity ever attend Your most gracious Majesty; may Your Crown long sit easie as Your Reign has in all things been more glorious than any of Your Royal Predecessors.

The following Address from the County of Norfolk, was presented to Her Majesty by Colonel Horatio Walpole, who had the Honour to kiss Her Majesty's Hand.

To the QUEEN'S most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen and Freeholders, at the Assizes held for the County of Norfolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly prostrate our selves before You with the Tribute of our Thanks for that happy Peace we now enjoy, which Heaven only and Your Self could give.

It is to Your Majesty's unshaken Resolution, together with the Councils of Your wise and faithful Ministry, that both we and Your Allies do, under GOD, owe these blessed Fruits of all Your glorious Victories; Blessings which we of this County have reason to hope, will be made more particularly effectual to us, by the Influence and Example of his Grace the Duke of Ormond, whom Your Majesty's great Goodness has been pleas'd to set over us; a Person not inferior in Conduct and Valour to the best and ablest General, that this or any Age before us has produc'd, tho' peculiarly formed for the milder Arts of Peace.

The Care which Your Majesty has taken to Establish the Ballance of Power abroad, as well as the Protestant Succession at home, together with the many Advantages You have obtain'd for Your Subjects, in not only restoring, but extending their Trade, are such Instances of Your tender and pious Concern for the Welfare of Your People, as must draw unfeigned Thanks from all, but such as have joined Hands with a restless and ungrateful Faction, whom no Government can satisfy.

That

That a Spirit of Gainſaying is gone out through Your Kingdoms we too ſenſibly know, and moſt heartily bewail, but do hope that Providence which has hitherto guided Your Majeſty's Councils, will enable You to lay it. We for our Parts ſhall be always ready and induſtrious to contribute what in us lies to make Your Life eaſie, and Your Reign happy, being with the utmoſt ſincerity, as in Duty bound, Madam, Your moſt obedient and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Tenby, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Mr. Francis Meyrick, Mayor; being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord High Chancellor.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council, and Burgeſſes of Your Majeſty's ancient Corporation of Tenby, in the County of Pembrock.

THIS with Satisfaction, we reflect on the many glorious Actions of Your Majeſty's Reign, and we ſhould be moſt ungrateful if we did not remark and acknowledge, that whatever Succeſs therein turns to Your Majeſty's immediate Glory, that the ſame in the Conſequence thereof, turns to the greater Advantage of Your loyal Subjects. This, Madam. intirely evidences, that Your Majeſty has nothing ſo much at Heart, as the real Intereſt of Your Kingdom and People; and the Peace which Your Majeſty hath been graciouſly pleaſed to reſtore unto us, gives us a freſh Inſtance of that Your Princely Diſpoſition.

Permit us, therefore, moſt gracious Sovereign, to approach Your Royal Throne with our moſt ſincere Thanks and Congratulations, as well for this advantageous, ſafe, and glorious Peace, as for the Care Your Majeſty hath taken to ſecure our Religion, Liberties, and Laws, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion, whereby not only the preſent, but future Ages, will receive the Benefit of Your Majeſty's wiſe Adminiſtration and Councils.

Theſe Conſiderations open to us an agreeable Proſpect of Plenty, Happineſs, and Proſperity to theſe Your Kingdoms; and as nothing in human Proſpect can divert the ſame, but the factious Temper of a deſpairing inconſiderable Party at home, ſo we do aſſure Your Majeſty we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, ſtand by Your Majeſty in ſuppreſſing the Inſolence of thoſe Enemies to their Queen and Country, and in ſupporting thoſe who ſhall, in their ſeveral Stations, behave themſelves faithfully and dutifully towards Your Majeſty, and endeavour to preſerve our Conſtitution in Church and State, and aſſert and ſupport Your Majeſty's and the Nation's Peace.

Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Hamburgh, Aug. 8. N. S. Count Schonborn, Vice Chancellor of the Empire, has lately had a Conference at Vienna with the Miniſters of the Allies of the North, in which he told them, by the Emperor's Command, that his Majeſty, as Head of the Empire, would no longer endure that the Circle of Lower Saxony ſhould be made the Seat of the War, that in order to put an end to the Troubles in that Circle, he was reſolved to aſſemble a Congreſs at Brunſwick, that he had already writ to the King of Pruſſia, the Elector of Hanover, and the Duke of Wolfenbuttel to ſend Miniſters to act there, in conjunction with his own. Thoſe of the Northern Confederates were therefore deſir'd to acquaint their Maſters with this Reſolution, which had been imparted to the King of Sweden, by the Emperor's Miniſter at Adrianople. There have been ſome Diſputes between Prince Menzikoff and General Flemming, about the Place they ſhould firſt lay Siege to. The latter propos'd Stralſund, and the Prince has at laſt conſented, provided King Auguſtus will furniſh Artillery and Ammunition for it. The Daniſh Fleet having receiv'd notice that a Swediſh Squadron conſiſting of Eight Ships was at Bornholm, went out to attack them, but the Swedes finding themſelves far inferior in Force to their Enemies, did not think proper to engage with them, and retir'd with a favourable Wind.

Hanover, Auguſt 8. N. S. The Prince of Bevern hath ſent a Gentleman to acquaint this Court, that his Princeſs, Grand-daughter to the Duke of Wolfenbuttel, is deliver'd of a Son. On the 31ſt paſt, the Duke of Mecklenburg Swerin dy'd at Slangenback, and is ſucceeded by his Brother Prince Charles. They write from Holſtein, that the King of Denmark was arriv'd at Gottorp from Copenhagen, and that a Daniſh Squadron, conſiſting of Fourteen Men of War, had ſet Sail towards Bornholm, upon advice that ſome Swediſh Ships were ſeen near that Iſland. It is ſuppos'd they are going with Succours of Men and Ammunition, either to Stralſund or the Iſle of Rugen. We have receiv'd advice from Petersburg, that the Czar was embarking Four thouſand Horſe, and as many Foot, in order to be tranſported to Finland, leaſt the Sweder, having gather'd their Forces together, ſhould be in a Condition to Attack the Muſcovites in that Dutchy. Letters from Adrianople of the 1ſt of July bring an account, that the Treaty of Peace between the Turks and the Muſcovites was ſign'd, and ſent to the Czar for his Ratification. The ſame advices add, that the King of Sweden having no further Hopes of Aſſiſtance from the Port, had declar'd that he would return into his own Dominions, without telling which way he intended to go.

Hague, Auguſt 12. N. S. Yeſterday the Earl of Strafford was in Conference with the Plenipotentiaries of the States-General, and afterwards with thoſe of his Catholick Majeſty. Baron Heems is returned from Amſterdam without having ſucceeded in the Loan he went to negotiate for the Emperor his Maſter. Monſieur Pleſs, Miniſter of the King of Denmark, is gone to Rotterdam, in order to embark for Great Britain. We have receiv'd advice from the Texel that two Eaſt India Ships, one Engliſh and the other Dutch, were come in there. They were ſeparated off the Coaſt of Jutland from the reſt of the Fleet, conſiſting of ſeven Britiſh and fourteen Dutch Ships, whoſe arrival is hourly expected. Letters from the Camp before Landau, bring an account, that the French have been very much retarded in their Approaches by continual Rains. The Prince of Wirtemberg, Governor of that Place, has lately receiv'd a Patent from the Emperor, conſtituting him one of his Velt Marſhals.

Windſor, Auguſt 4. This Day the moſt Noble Henry Duke of Beaufort, Captain of Her Majeſty's Band of Gentlemen-Penſioners; Henry Duke of Kent; the Right Hon. John Earl Poulett, Lord Steward of Her Majeſty's Houſhold; Robert Earl of Oxford and Earl Mortimer, Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain; Thomas Earl of Strafford, firſt Lord Commiſſioner of the Admiralty of Great Britain and Ireland, and One of Her Majeſty's Ambaſſadors-Plenipotentiary at the Congreſs at Utretch, by his Proxy Sir Jacob Bancks, Kt. (who was Conſtituted by the Sovereign's ſpecial Appointment for that Service); and Charles Earl of Peterborough and Monmouth, General of the Marines, were severally Installed Knights Companions of the most noble Order of the Garter, in the Chapel-Royal of St. George, within the College, in the Castle of Windsor, by the most Noble John Duke of Buckingham and Normanby, Lord President of Her Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council; George Duke of Northumberland, Constable of the said Castle of Windsor; and James Duke of Ormond, Captain-General of Her Majesty's Forces, Knights and Companions of the said Order, Commissioned thereto by the Sovereign, under the great Seal of the Order, with the usual Ceremonies: The Atchievments of six deceased Knights, viz. the Duke of Leeds, the Earl of Rochester, the Dukes of Newcastle, Queensberry, Bedford, and the Earl of Godolphin, having been first offer'd by the Knights Commissioners; and after all the Ceremonies in the Chapel were perform'd, in the accustom'd manner, the Sovereign's Commissioners aforesaid, and the new Installed Knights, with their Caps and Feathers on their Heads, and their Trains borne up by the Children of the Chapel, proceeded from thence down the South Ile, by the great West Door up the North Ile of the Church, to the Chapter House (where Sir Jacob Bancks, the Earl of Strafford's Proxy, left his Mantle) and thence to the Dean's Lodgings, preceded by the poor Knights, Prebends, Officers of Arms, and the Officers of the Order; from whence the Knights Companions and Proxy (by reason of the Rain) were carried privately in their Chairs to the Castle, without any Ceremony, where there was a most splendid Dinner provided in the great Guard Chamber, at the new Knights Charge, for the Knights Commissioners, the Officers of the Order, and a numerous Company of the Nobility and other Persons of Quality and Distinction, who were present on this Occasion; and a Table was also provided for the Officers of Arms, who attended at this Solemnity.

Kensington, August 5. This Day Her Majesty remov'd from hence to Hampton Court.

Whitehall, August 7. A Conge d'Elire is passing the Seals for translating the Right Reverend Father in God, John Lord Bishop of Bristol, Lord Privy Seal, and one of Her Majesty's Ambassador's Extraordinary and Plenipotentiaries at Utrecht, to the See of London.
